Press Release

JUN MA OF DEUTSCHE BANK AND PROFESSOR FAN GANG OF NERI
TO KEYNOTE AT MIPIM ASIA 2009

Paris, May 12, 2009 – MIPIM Asia, the leading real estate market in Asia Pacific, today announces its first two keynote speakers - Jun Ma, Deutsche Bank's Chief Economist for Greater China and Professor Fan Gang, Director of the Beijing-based National Institute of Economic Research (NERI* – China).

MIPIM Asia 2009 has chosen China as its Country of Honour and this year's conference programme will offer a series of panels dedicated to the vibrant Chinese real estate market. The fourth edition of MIPIM Asia will take place 18-20 November 2009, in the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre.

Jun Ma, Deutsche Bank's Chief Economist for Greater China, has been heralded as one of the best China analysts and one of the best Asia economists by institutional investors over the past years. His pre-opening keynote address on Tuesday, November 17 will cover the global economic situation in the Asia Pacific region.

Professor Fan Gang, Director of National Institute of Economic Research (NERI* – China) and consultant to various departments of the Chinese Central government and provincial governments, will turn his attention to the Chinese economic outlook on Wednesday, November 18.

Through a selection of visionary keynote addresses and expert-led panels, this year's MIPIM Asia conferences will also include investment opportunities throughout Asia Pacific region covering segments such as architecture, retail, hotel and tourism investment, sustainable development and will bring together leading national and local authorities during specific panel sessions.

The conference programme will soon be posted and is regularly updated on www.mipimasia.com
